7. During a complicated critical event (e.g. PEA cardiac arrest), presuming sufficient help is present for a reader to assist the event leader... The following 3 ask about subtly different aspects:
... I would ask an anesthesiologist leader something like, "Would you like me to get the emergency manual for another anesthesiologist 'reader' (to read aloud)?"	1. Strongly Disagree	2. Disagree	3. Neutral	4. Agree	5. Strongly Agree	1. Strongly Disagree	2. Disagree	3. Neutral	4. Agree	5. Strongly Agree
... I would ask an anesthesiologist leader something like, "Would you like me to be a 'reader' (to read aloud for a specific event in the Emergency Manual)?"	1. Strongly Disagree	2. Disagree	3. Neutral	4. Agree	5. Strongly Agree	1. Strongly Disagree	2. Disagree	3. Neutral	4. Agree	5. Strongly Agree
... I would be comfortable in the 'reader role' for a specific event in the Emergency Manual, if asked by an anesthesiologist leader.	1. Strongly Disagree	2. Disagree	3. Neutral	4. Agree	5. Strongly Agree	1. Strongly Disagree	2. Disagree	3. Neutral	4. Agree	5. Strongly Agree
